

On 13 August 2024, at 01:42 GMT, during an interview between Messrs. Mask and Tramp on X-Twitter, the former called on the latter to set up a "GOVERNMENT EFFICIENCY COMMISSION" to ensure that taxpayer money be better spent, and offered to help out with heading such a commission. Mr. Tramp replied enthusiastically that Mr. Mask would be ideal for such a role.

Ideal indeed, since there is little doubt that the ideal of any Businessman is to maximize Tax revenue for the Government, with a vision toward spending more on the Populace.

Assignment:

Government being the exact opposite of Business, profitwise, please explain, from the perspective of Ethics, in which way exactly the Wealthiest Person on the Planet may be the most qualified to run Government agencies such as those in charge of Taxation.
