

Diversity

(November 2024)

It could very well be that the much vaunted Diversity of the United States has been promoted recently from sheer Embarrassment to magnificent Glory in order to become a quite convenient tool to justify worldwide hegemonic aspirations.

Ethnicities from all over the World flock to the United States of America and "*pledge allegiance*¹ *to the Flag*² *of the United States of America, and to the Republic*³ *for which it stands*⁴, *one Nation under God*⁵, *indivisible*⁶, *with liberty*⁷ *and justice for all*⁸".

In so doing, they become quintessential homogenous Americans.

It's only a small psychological stepping stone, albeit possibly an unconscious one, that would lead the plethoric sections of diverse humanity in the United States to feel morally and rightfully entitled to rule over all the sections of humanity they left behind.

Examples abound.

Find a five minute cinematic allegory here: Coca Migration Cola

¹ Allegiance entails fealty to a Liege, another title for a lord or a king

² A flag is an inanimate object which could hardly be considered a feudal lord or a king

³ There seems to be some inconsistency between a feudal lord, or king, and a Republic

⁴ The flag, being made of flaccid cloth, must be solidly and thoroughly starched before it can stand

⁶ Although not between 1860 and 1865

⁷ Or what is left of it after being thoroughly curtailed by the Law

⁸ Only for those who can afford extravagantly expensive justice, though, the rest doing without
