

Executively Constitutional or Constitutionally Executive

(December 2024)

Learned Candidates to a Doctoral Degree in Constitutional and Logical Studies are hereby invited to submit a thorough dissertation with the purpose of reconciling the following statements:

A. Oath of Office of the President of the United States on Inauguration Day:

As per Article II, Section One, Clause 8, of the United States Constitution:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the Office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the Constitution of the United States."

B. The President-Elect's assertions in the "Meet the Press" program, on December 8th, 2024:

1. About deporting families together:

The President-Elect:

"Well, that way you keep the — well, I don't want to be breaking up families, so the only way you don't break up the family is you keep them together and you have to send them all back¹ [to the country where they came from]."

¹ Including members of said family who happen to be rightful United States citizens since birth, therefore in contravention of the Law, in particular 8 U.S. Code § 1503

2. About ending birthright citizenship on day one by executive action and circumventing without due process ² the 14th Amendment to the Constitution (“All persons born in the United States are citizens”):

The President-Elect:

"Well, we're going to have to get it changed. We'll maybe have to go back to the people. But we have to end it. We're the only country that has it ³, you know ⁴."

"You know ⁴ we're the only country that has it ³."

"Yes, we're going to end that because it's ridiculous."

"We have to end it. It's ridiculous. Do you know ⁴ we're the only country in the world that has it ³? Do you know that ⁴? There's not one other country ³" ⁵

² The procedure for amending the Constitution is outlined in Article V of said Constitution

³ If one makes abstraction of the following 33 nations, in which Jus soli, or birthright citizenship, is the Law of the Land (in alphabetical order),: Antigua and Barbuda, Argentina, Barbados, Belize, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Chad, Cuba, Dominica, Ecuador, El Salvador, Fiji, Grenada, Guatemala, Guyana, Honduras, Jamaica, Lesotho, Mexico, Nicaragua, Pakistan, Panama, Paraguay, Peru, Saint Kitts and Nevis, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, Tanzania, Trinidad and Tobago, Tuvalu, Uruguay, and Venezuela.

⁴ To Know or not to Know, that is the Question

⁵ The redundancy is verbatim, as per the interview transcript
