

Shades

(January 2024)

If there is one social category the White Male seems to dislike and despise way more intensely than any colored Male or Female, it is the Female of his own shade.

TO WIT:

1. The 15th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution gave African-American Males the right to vote in 1870, but
2. The 19th Amendment gave Females of all shades the right to vote only in 1920, half a century later;
3. In 2008 a Male who was seen as of African ethnicity was elected to the Presidency;
4. In 2020 a Female born to a Tamil Indian mother and a Jamaican father was elected to the Vice-presidency;
5. In 2024, the runner-up for the Republican presidential nomination is a Female born to Indian Punjab Sikh parents.

One could reasonably infer that the electorate will elect any shade of Male or Female to the Supreme Function of the Republic before they condescend to elect a White Female.

Is that what is called White Supremacy?
